Holme Lacy House Hotel, Herefordshire WARNERLEISUREHOTELS

This Grade I listed mansion was completed in 1674 and was reportedly visited by Charles II, and William Pitt, 1st Earl of Chatham, who held cabinet meetings in the gardens. Set in 20 acres of gardens in the Wye Valley, Holme Lacy is one of Herefordshire's treasures. There's plenty to do, with daily entertainment and an indoor pool, Holme Lacy House is the perfect place to relax after leisurely days of exploration included with our experienced Tour Manager.

All bedrooms have: En-suite bathroom, towels, free Wi-Fi, a TV, hairdryer, safe, comfy chairs and reading lights and tea & coffee making facilities with biscuits. Disabled facility rooms available. Historic Rooms are located in the main house with all others in the connected modern annex.
